Friday 20 Nov at 7pm South Yorkshire Folk Tales

Lavish legends, strange and spooky happenings, and tall tales from the streets of Sheffield and beyond will be brought to life as acclaimed storyteller, creative writing lecturer, author and folklorist Simon Heywood will be joining us to launch his latest book, South Yorkshire Folk Tales, with an event which includes live storytelling. There will also be a chance to buy the book featuring versions of stories drawn from 'libraries, old newspaper cuttings, word of mouth and time spent in dusty pubs'.

Tickets £5 available from the library. All proceeds from these events go to help keep our library open.

Thank you!

It's heartening that so many people are willing to devote their time and energy to keep our library open. Special thanks to:

John and Jennie Hinton for opening their garden and raising almost £500
Jennie and Keith Wilson for organising our first farmers market

Anniversary!

Help us celebrate our first anniversary as a volunteer-run library. Come and join our open day on Saturday 10 October from 10am to 4 pm. See our exhibition telling the story of FROGL to date and find out more about what has been achieved this year.

Meet the volunteers who have run the library, looked after the building and organised events.
